¹ UMT offices are closed for the New Year's Day holiday. Students will receive access to courses but attendance is not required.

The University of Management and Technology (UMT) publishes the university's general policies in the catalogs of undergraduate programs and graduate programs annually by the start of the academic year. UMT also publishes and updates federally required information in its Consumer Information Disclosures. The URLs for these documents are:

UMT Catalog for Undergraduate Programs: <http://umtweb.edu/pdfdocs/UndergraduateCatalog.pdf>

UMT Catalog for Graduate Programs: <http://umtweb.edu/pdfdocs/GraduateCatalog.pdf>

Consumer Information Disclosures: <http://umtweb.edu/GI.aspx?key=id&typ=none>

UMT's Federal Student Aid Office (FSAO) is responsible for preparing and communicating information on Federal Student Aid (FSA) and helps students apply for and receive student loans, grants, scholarships and other types of financial aid. Refer to the "Financial Assistance" section in UMT catalog for financial options available at UMT. Refer to the Student Aid website for more guidance on how to find and apply for scholarships: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/types/grants-scholarships/finding-scholarships>.

UMT students in the term-based program must follow pertinent policies contained in catalogs and review Consumer Information Disclosures in addition to the policies identified in this Federal Student Aid Student Handbook (FSA Student Handbook).

1 FSA Award & Academic Years

The FSA Award Year begins on 1 July and ends on 30 June the following year. The standard UMT Academic Year begins on 1 October and ends on 30 June the following year. UMT also offers a summer semester, which begins 1 July and ends 30 September. The FSA Academic Year is the equivalent of UMT's standard Academic Year (9-months).

To receive FSA for an applicable semester, new students who plan to use FSA must complete all processing requirements on time in accordance with the FSA calendar.

Current students who plan to transfer from UMT's self-paced program to the term-based program to use FSA must complete all processing requirements on time in accordance with the FSA calendar before summer semester begins.

2 FSA Eligibilities

To be eligible to receive FSA at UMT, a student must meet the following criteria prior to the FSA processing end date:

1. Officially admitted by UMT into a FSA eligible education program² and to have a learning plan accepted. Refer to "Admission Policy" in UMT Catalogs.
2. Completed a current award year FAFSA application (<https://fafsa.ed.gov/>) with UMT's school code (041103) at least fifteen (15) days prior to the FSA processing end date
3. Completed FAFSA and other school verification, if required, at least seven (7) days prior to the processing end date
4. Have a high school diploma or General Education Development (GED) certificate
5. A US citizen or an eligible non-US citizen with valid Social Security number
6. If the student is a male between the ages 18-25, he must be registered with the Selective Service
7. Not been convicted of an illegal drug-related offense
8. Not be incarcerated
9. Not be in default on a Federal Student Loan or owe an overpayment on a FSA grant or loan
10. Not have borrowed in excess of the annual or aggregate loan limits in FSA
11. Certify that FSA funding only be used for educational purpose
12. Acknowledge UMT Annual Notice and UMT FSA Student Handbook including all term-based program guidelines
13. Complete an Institutional Worksheet that is used to determine FSA eligibility
14. Register in a Term-based program
15. Prior to a loan disbursement, complete Entrance Counseling and a Master Promissory Note (MPN) for Direct Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loans on the Student Loan website (<https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action>)
16. Enroll at least halftime to receive a Federal Direct Loan

² Ineligible degrees include ASGS & BSGS. Ineligible certificates include all certificates and the executive certificates in homeland security and criminal justice. The PM Suite program and those enrolled under the self-paced enrollment program are ineligible.

17. Attend school on a regular basis per UMT's term-based study requirements on attendance and continuous enrollment
18. Maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

3 Types of Federal Student Aid

3.1 Office of FSA of the Department of Education (OFSA)

The Office of FSA (OFSA) is a part of the Department of Education (ED) responsible for managing the student financial assistance programs authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act (HEA) of 1965. The Office of FSA of the Department of education provides grants, loans, and work-study funds from ED to eligible students and their parents (in the case of the Parent PLUS loan) enrolled in Title IV participating universities, colleges or schools. UMT encourages students and parents to visit the Student Aid website (<https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/>) to better understand OFSA's role. Please don't confuse OFSA of the Department of Education with UMT FSA Office.

3.1.1 FSA Glossary

The OFSA provides a glossary of all FSA related terms here: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/glossary>.

3.1.2 OFSA Feedback and Complaints

The OFSA provides a way for students to reach out here: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/contact/feedback>.

UMT participates in the following FSA programs:

3.2 Federal Student Grant Program³

3.2.1 Federal Pell Grant

The Pell Grant, a financial need-based grant. A Pell Grant is awarded to students who demonstrate financial need and who have not earned a bachelor's or graduate degree. The maximum amount for an Award Year is subject to change and students should refer to the FAFSA Student Aid Report (SAR). The total Pell Grant a FSA student may receive over a lifetime is limited by federal law to the equivalent of six years.

3.3 Federal Student Loans Programs

Federal Student Direct Loans are low interest loans with flexible repayment terms, grace periods⁴, benefits, and options available to cover the cost of the education at participating schools. ED is the lender and loan repayment is owed to ED.

3.3.1 Direct Subsidized Loan

A loan available to undergraduate students with financial need and if they meet other eligibility requirements. ED pays interest on these loans while borrowers are enrolled at least half-time, during grace periods, or during authorized periods of deferment.

3.3.2 Direct Unsubsidized Loan

A loan not based on financial need available to undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree students if they also meet other eligibility requirements. The borrower is responsible for interest payments during all periods.

3.3.3 Direct PLUS Loan

A loan not based on financial need available to graduate or professional degree students and parents of dependent undergraduate students. Borrowers must not have negative credit history and a PLUS Loan requires credit approval by ED. Borrowers can apply through the Student Loans website (<https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action>) and if approved, borrowers will have to complete the Federal Direct PLUS Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN).

³ Grants do not have to be repaid unless unearned, for example, the student is awarded funds incorrectly or withdraws from school prior to the planned end of a term.

⁴ A grace period is a period of time after borrowers graduate, leave school, or drop below halftime enrollment where they are not required to make payments on certain federal student loans. Some federal student loans will accrue interest during the grace period, and if the interest is unpaid, it will be added to the principal balance of the loan when the repayment period begins.

4 Federal Loan Borrower's Rights and Responsibilities

In addition to FSA eligibility criteria, FSA Direct Loan borrowers have rights and responsibilities as follows.

4.1 Rights

- Repay borrowed loan(s) in whole or in part at any time without penalty.
- Written notification if borrowed loans are sold or transferred for servicing.
- A grace period which begins when a borrower drops below a halftime enrollment status, before loan repayment.
- Request forbearance or defer repayment for a specific time period if qualified.
- Receive a copy of the signed MPN, and request the return of the MPN once loan(s) are paid in full.
- Receive a repayment schedule and detail information about interest, fees, balance, and repayment options.
- Have loans forgiven if the borrower dies or becomes permanently disabled.
- Contact information for OFSA's Ombudsman at <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/repay-loans/disputes/prepare/contact-ombudsman>.

4.2 Responsibilities

- Maintain FSA student eligibility including Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP).
- Provide complete and true information on all loan documents.
- Notify the Direct Loan Servicing Center immediately about any changes to name, address, telephone number, Social Security Number, or student status.
- Repay loan(s) on time even if the borrower does not complete education, is dissatisfied with the education received, or is unable to find employment after graduation.
- Make repayments on loan(s) even if the borrower does not receive a bill or repayment notice.
- Notify the Direct Loan Servicing Center if having trouble making payments. The borrower may be able to postpone or reduce payments.
- If the borrower applies for a deferment or forbearance, the borrower must continue to make payments on loan(s) until notified that the request has been granted.
- Be sure to read the MPN for more descriptions in the rights and responsibilities.

Students can visit the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS: http://www.nsls.ed.gov/nsls_SA/) to monitor Pell Grant Lifetime Eligibility Used (LEU) and Direct Loan servicers and balances. All information on NSLDS is accessible by students, guaranty agencies, lenders, and schools authorized by ED as users of NSLDS.

4.3 Borrowing Limit

A loan period is equivalent to the student's academic year. Once the borrowed amount has reached the lifetime aggregate loan limit, a borrower cannot borrow more until the principal loan balance is under the maximum.

For Federal Direct Loan purposes, undergraduate students are classified based on grade level progression year by year, which is determined by the total credits completed at UMT for the academic program, including transfer credits. UMT will determine the loan grade level prior to the start of the academic year and it will stay the same for the entire academic year.

Dependent students, whose parents are unable to obtain PLUS loan due to adverse credit or other documented exceptional circumstance, may borrow additional unsubsidized loans up to the independent student loan levels.

The maximum loan an undergraduate student can borrow per loan period is $3,500 to $12,500 – depending on dependency and year – but cannot exceed financial need. Aid from all sources, excluding VA benefits – except housing – cannot exceed a student's cost of attendance at UMT.

Grade Level Progression	Dependent Students (except students whose parents are unable to obtain PLUS Loans)	Independent Students (and dependent undergraduate students whose parents are unable to obtain PLUS Loans)
1 st Year (0-26 credits)	$5,500—No more than $3,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.	$9,500—No more than $3,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.
2 nd Year (27-53 credits)	$6,500—No more than $4,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.	$10,500—No more than $4,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.
3 rd Year & Beyond (>54 credits)	$7,500—No more than $5,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.	$12,500—No more than $5,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.
Lifetime Aggregate Loan Limit	$31,000—No more than $23,000 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.	$57,500 for undergraduates—No more than $23,000 of this amount may be in subsidized loans. The aggregate limit includes all federal loans received as dependent.

The maximum loan a graduate student can borrow per loan period is $20,500. However, aid from all sources, excluding VA benefits – except housing, cannot exceed a student’s cost of attendance at UMT.

Year	Graduate or Professional Students
Every Year	$20,500 (unsubsidized only)
Lifetime Aggregate Loan Limit	$138,500—No more than $65,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans. The graduate aggregate limit includes all federal loans received for undergraduate study.

4.4 Interest Rates⁵

The table below provides the interest rates for all new loans made on or after July 1, 2017 and before July 1, 2018.

Loan	Interest Rate
Direct Subsidized Loans (Undergraduates)	4.45%
Direct Unsubsidized Loans (Undergraduates)	4.45%
Direct Unsubsidized Loans (Graduate or Professional Students)	6.00%
Direct PLUS Loans (Parents and Graduate or Professional Students)	7.00%

4.5 Loan Repayment

Your student loans are a major responsibility and they should be taken very seriously. First and foremost, stay in contact with your lender(s) (or holder/services of your loan) to take full advantage of the student loan program benefits. The successful repayment of your student loans will prove to be very beneficial. This will help establish a good credit rating which, in turn, will allow you to borrow in the future for things such as a home.

You need to be familiar with the repayment process, your rights and responsibilities, and what benefits or options are available to you. Remember, even if you do not graduate, you are still responsible for repaying your loan.

4.5.1 Federal Direct Loan Exit Interview

If you have borrowed under the Federal Direct Loan program you are required by federal regulation to complete an exit interview prior to graduation that describes your rights and responsibilities. Completion of the exit interview via the Internet at studentloans.gov is an easy process and only takes about 10 minutes. You'll need the following information on hand to complete your exit interview:

- Your expected employer, address and phone number (if you will be employed upon graduation).
- Your nearest living relative’s name and complete address and phone number.
- Two other references with complete addresses and phone numbers.
- Your lender’s name. (You may access this information through the Hofstra Portal.)
- Your guarantor’s name. (You may access this information through the Hofstra Portal.)

You can also locate information on your prior and current federal loans, including prior consolidation loans, by accessing National Student Loan Data Systems (NSLDS) at nslds.ed.gov. This website has information on loan amounts, outstanding loan balances, loan statuses and disbursements. In order to access your records on the NSLDS web site you will need to provide your social security number, the first two digits of your last name, your date of birth and your FAFSA PIN number.

4.5.2 Repayment Process

Repayment of your student loans begins once you graduate, leave school or drop below half-time. However, most loans have a six or nine month grace period from the point at which you become less than a half-time student to the point at which your first payment is due.

Both subsidized and unsubsidized Federal Direct loan borrowers are entitled to receive a grace period. A grace period gives you time to get your finances together before your first loan payment is due. Your grace period begins the day you drop below half-time enrollment status and lasts six months.

During the grace period, the federal government continues to pay the interest on subsidized Federal Direct loans. Unsubsidized Federal Direct loan borrowers, however, are responsible for payment of the interest from the first day funds are disbursed. Therefore, payment of the interest can be made in a couple of different ways. You can pay the interest on a monthly or quarterly basis, or allow the interest to accrue and be capitalized into the principal balance of your loan. During repayment your payment must be at least $50 a month and you have a minimum of five years and a maximum of 10 years to repay your student loan. The exact amount of your payment and number of months to repay depends on the total amount you borrowed.

4.5.3 Rights and Responsibilities

You have the right to prepay part or your entire loan at any time without penalty. This can help reduce the total cost of your borrowing. You may have the right to have your loan canceled in part or in its entirety if you: are unable to continue in your program of study because your school closed and no teach-out agreement was established; participate or participated in the National Service Trust Program; or become totally and permanently disabled or pass away.

The Federal Direct loan forgiveness demonstration program also allows for the partial repayment of loans if you are a full-time teacher in certain elementary and secondary schools teaching certain subjects, a full-time nurse in certain types of hospitals or health care centers or are a volunteer under the Peace Corps Act or ACTION Programs or perform comparable service in a tax-exempt organization. This program is subject to federal funding.

You must notify your lender(s) immediately if any of the following occur: you change your address; you change your name; you change your telephone number; you change your Social Security Number; you change employment; your employer's address changes; or you make any other changes that will affect your loan status.

4.5.4 Loan Default

If you do not repay your loan on time, it will become delinquent and possibly default. This has serious consequences and can be very damaging to your credit rating.

Defaulted loans are reported to national credit agencies, which can negatively affect your credit rating and your ability to purchase a car or home in the future. In addition, the following can occur: you may lose future eligibility for financial aid and/or educational loans; the references you supplied on your loan application may be contacted; additional fees and interest may be charged to you; you may lose deferment and forbearance options; your federal and state tax refunds may be applied to your loan balance; your professional license renewal may be denied; your employer may withhold part of your salary for payment of your loan; and legal action may be taken against you.

If you are unable to make your scheduled loan payments, do not wait to ask for help – contact your lender(s) immediately.

4.6 Deferment and Forbearance

If you qualify, you can receive deferment of payments. If your circumstances change such that they affect your ability to make your payments, contact your lender(s) immediately to see if you qualify for a deferment or forbearance. Letting your lender(s) know your situation can help prevent your loan from becoming delinquent or going into default.

A deferment allows you to postpone your payment (principal, and in some cases, interest) for a certain period of time for specific reasons recognized by the federal government.

Forbearance allows you to temporarily postpone or reduce your principal payments for periods of up to one year at a time. Payment of the interest which accrues during forbearance is your responsibility. You have the option to either pay the interest on a monthly or quarterly basis, or have it accrued and be capitalized into the balance of the loan.

4.6.1 Deferments

Many situations allow you to defer your loan payments. Your eligibility for a specific deferment is determined by the date your loan was disbursed. The most common reasons borrowers receive a deferment include returning to school or being unable to find employment of at least 30 hours per week. If you are currently making student loan payments, it is very important that you continue making payments until your deferment request is approved by your lender.

If your first subsidized or unsubsidized Federal Stafford or Federal SLS loan was disbursed before July 1, 1993, service in a volunteer organization may qualify you for a deferment. You will need to complete the borrower's section of a deferment form, specific to the type of deferment you are requesting. Your lender or holder will provide you with the correct form. You may also be required to provide supporting documentation and/or certification, depending upon the deferment you are requesting.

If you are requesting an in-school deferment and applying for a new student loan for the same period of enrollment, you may request an in-school deferment on the application and promissory note.

If you become too delinquent in your scheduled payments, you will default and lose the option to defer future payments. In order to receive the deferment you may be required to provide supporting documentation and/or certification, depending upon the type of deferment you are requesting.

4.6.2 Forbearance

In the event you do not qualify for a deferment, you can request forbearance. Forbearance allows you to temporarily postpone or reduce your principal payments for periods of up to one year at a time.

There are four types of forbearance: discretionary, administrative, mandatory and mandatory administrative. Contact your servicer to discuss the type of forbearance for which you may be considered.

5 Cost of Attendance

The information below represents the estimated cost of attendance for a student attending UMT and not the actual cost charged to the student. Indirect costs are estimated for books, room/board, dependent care, and miscellaneous expenses. Estimates are moderate and not intended to meet the actual living expenses.

Students should carefully consider the amount of student loans borrowed in excess of actual tuition expenses. Unlike scholarships and grants, student loans must be repaid with interest. The estimates below are based on a full time enrollment status and the student's off-campus housing plan.

Estimated Costs ⁶	Undergraduate	Graduate	Executive Certificate	Graduate Certificate
Tuition and Fees	$ 10,620	$ 7,110	$5,940	$8,310
Loan Fees (Processing)	$ 135	$ 165	$140	$190
Room/Board*	$ 6,435	$ 6,435	$3,220	$3,220
Books	$ 270	$ 300	$250	$350
Dependent Care	$ 900	$ 900	$900	$900
Miscellaneous	$ 500	$ 500	$500	$500
Total	$ 18,860	$ 15,410	$10,950	$13,470

*Students living in military housing, receiving a military housing allowance, and/or dependent students living with parents are only eligible for 25 percent of room/board. Dependent students not living with parents are only eligible for 50% room/board.

Applicable only for students with dependents. Amount can be increased on a case-by-case basis only for students with a disability and/or to allow for special circumstances.

⁶ Pell Grant only cost of attendance does not include loan fees.

Certificate programs have different academic year periods and requirements. Executive Certificates are based on the 15-credits and an assumed full-time enrollment for three (3) semesters. The Graduate Certificate is based on the 21-credits and an assumed full-time enrollment for four (4) semesters.

5.1 Shopping Sheet

The FSAO provides the ED Shopping Sheet to help students understand educational costs, the aid available to meet those costs, and to compare the cost of attendance and aid awards across schools in an ED standard format.

5.2 Net Price Calculator

The Net Price Calculator (<https://www.umtweb.edu/NPC/npcalc.htm>) is another tool to assist in estimating costs at UMT.

6 FAFSA Verification

Federal regulations prohibit fraud and abuse in FSA programs. UMT is required to verify data on a FAFSA flagged for verification by ED's Central Processing System (CPS) for irregularities, discrepancies, and/or potential inaccuracies. UMT may also flag a FAFSA for verification if there is conflicting, incomplete, or incorrect information. UMT and the FSAO have the authority to require a FAFSA applicant – and spouse, if a student is married – to provide additional documentation deemed necessary to complete verification.

The CPS produces a Student Aid Report (SAR) – available on FAFSA on the Web (<https://fafsa.ed.gov/>) – which advises the applicant if s/he is selected for verification. Additionally, the SAR details an applicant's expected family contribution (EFC), which is used to determine Pell Grant eligibility.

Unless the FSAO has reason to believe inaccuracy, it will not require an applicant to verify the reported FAFSA information of the parents of a dependent applicant or of the spouse of an independent applicant if any of the following apply to those parties:

- Mentally incapacitated.
- Has died.
- Resides in a country other than the United States and cannot be contacted by normal means.
- Cannot be located because the applicant does not have and cannot get contact information.

Unless the FSAO has reason to believe inaccuracy, it does not require CPS-flagged verification applicants who are only eligible to receive an unsubsidized or a graduate PLUS loan to clear the CPS verification flag; however, documents voluntarily submitted will be reviewed for conflicting information.

UMT automatically selects FAFSAs flagged by the CPS for citizenship, disability, selective service, or Unusual Enrollment History (UEH) for verification. UEH identifies students that have received FSA at multiple institutions during the last four consecutive award years.

An application CPS flagged "UEH 2" and "UEH 3" will be reviewed by the FSAO to determine whether or not the student is enrolling long enough to receive a cash disbursement of FSA. All required documentation must be received and the UEH flag must be resolved before an applicant is eligible to receive federal student aid.

UMT is unable to disburse FSA to any applicant who does not submit requested documentation and verification forms. If UMT receives a subsequent FAFSA, which is CPS-flagged or becomes UMT-flagged for verification, UMT will hold future disbursements until the flag is resolved. The FSAO must receive verification documents via email, fax, or regular mail, before the processing end date. The FSAO will go by the post-marked date for mailed documents. Notarized documents must be mailed and electronically reproducible. The FSAO will notify the applicant of results within 14 days after all documents are received and processing is complete.

The FSAO will refer any potential fraud or falsified information or other criminal misconduct in connection with an applicant's FAFSA to the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Anyone may submit a confidential report by contacting the OIG at 1-800-MIS-USED (1-800-647-8733) or by completing the online complaint form at <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/oig/hotline.html>.

7 Attendance

UMT takes FSA student class attendance. UMT monitors attendance of the FSA students weekly. The first week attendance and academic activities establish the evidence needed to allow UMT to disburse FSA. Attendance and academic activities will be used to determine student participation within the semester. Academic activities include online studying/accessing of course modules and/or sections, submitting required assignments, taking exams, and participating in course discussions in the Academic Forum. Students are required to participate in the forum discussions weekly except for the final exam week of the semester.

Students may miss two (2) weeks of study but if two or more consecutive weeks are missed, it may prompt withdrawal processing. Please refer to UMT policies below in Withdrawal and Return to Title IV for more guidance.

8 Textbook and Software

FSA students must purchase their own textbook and/or software required for the class. The ISBN information is available on the UMT Bookstore page within the UMT Student Portal. Each textbook information entry contains links to several online book sellers for the convenience of students, but students can purchase at a vendor of their choice.

9 FSA Disbursements

Disbursements depend upon attendance and/or satisfactory academic progress. A Pell Grant is disbursed based on enrollment status. Direct Loans are borrowed based on an assumed full-time enrollment status so the amounts do not change if the student attends less than or more than full-time.

FSA disbursements are applied first to tuition, fees, and/or debt as applicable. The remaining FSA funds are disbursed to the student or parent (in the case of the Parent PLUS loan) by direct bank deposit or mailed check within 14 calendar days after the first day of class. A voluntary written authorization is required if a student or parent would like UMT to hold or apply all or a portion of an FSA balance towards future charges, past balances, and/or non-institutional charges such as but not limited to a loss of eligibility repayment. UMT is authorized to hold up to $200 of a disbursement to apply towards a prior academic year's tuition and fees debt.

For students who need funds to purchase books and supplies in a timely fashion for their study, UMT aims to disburse the funds by the 7th day after the semester start date, if UMT has received funds from the ED.

9.1 Partial Disbursements

Starting with UMT's October-Fall semester, for first-time undergraduate students who are first-time loan borrowers⁷, UMT can only disburse any loan disbursement no early than 30 days after the start of the semester; for students who require a one (1) semester loan period⁸, UMT can only disburse half of any loan disbursement(s) at the start of the semester and the remaining half – if eligible – after the mid-point of the semester. The Pell Grant will be disbursed in full. UMT at its discretion may adjust disbursements so students have aid to purchase books; however, the amount will not be more than 60 percent of the disbursement total.

10 Enrollment

10.1 Continuous Enrollment

FSA students are required to maintain continuous enrollment in the term-based program. FSA students are expected to complete their courses at the end of the semester. Students who do not complete their coursework after 13 weeks from the start date will be given an administrative grade of Incomplete (I). Refer to "Incomplete Coursework" policy in UMT catalogs.

⁷ A first-time undergraduate student is an entering undergraduate who has never attended any institution of higher education. A first-time loan borrower is someone who has no outstanding balance of principal or interest a Direct Loan Program or FFEL Program loan on July 1, 2013, or on the date the borrower obtains a Direct Loan Program loan after July 1, 2013.

⁸ Those enrolling in final courses/semester at the start of his/her individual academic period will be subjected to a one (1) semester loan. Students must still be enrolled and attending classes at least halftime to receive the remaining disbursement.

Students who do not complete at least 1-course in the semester will be considered unofficially withdrawn for the semester. Refer to UMT policies on Withdrawal and Return to Title IV below for guidance.

10.2 Reporting

For Federal Student Loan and enrollment reporting purposes, if a student has no enrollment within 90 days after the student's last semester's end date, the FSAO must report a withdrawn status effective on the last grade date. This will prompt the borrower's grace period before loan repayment.

The FSAO reports the enrollment of any student on the NSLDS roster, which may include students not receiving FSA at UMT.

11 Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) assesses student's quality of study efforts and degree progression. Maintaining SAP is one of important eligibility criteria to receive FSA funding.

SAP is evaluated for every FSA student at the end of the current semester and prior to the beginning of the next. Students who are in Pass-Warning or Fail status will receive a SAP report informing them of SAP status and FSA eligibility. SAP status and FSA eligibility are as follows:

SAP Status	Pass	Pass-Warning	Fail	Fail-Probation
FSA Eligibility	Yes	Yes	No	Yes

Warning – Did not meet SAP but completed 33 percent of attempted courses and was in first semester of academic program or received Pass for the prior enrolled semester. Cannot receive twice in a row

Probation – Did not meet SAP but appeal approved. Status valid for one (1) semester only

Students transferring from a self-paced to term-based program seeking FSA funding will receive a SAP evaluation prior to the beginning of the semester informing them of SAP and FSA eligibility.

UMT employs two criteria to measure SAP:

- Cumulative grade point average (CGPA), which assesses the quality of the student's study efforts;
- Credit hour completion, which assesses the extent to which students are completing their work quantitatively, including: 1) term enrollment credit hour completion; and 2) program credit hour completion within the maximum time duration allowed for a program of study.

Following are descriptions of each of these criteria:

11.1 Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA)

In order to successfully complete a degree program, undergraduate students must achieve a minimum CGPA of 2.0 and graduate students must achieve a minimum CGPA of 3.0. Students are also required to meet or exceed the CGPA threshold established by UMT at different stages in their progress toward a degree, in accordance with the table below,

	Credits Completed (excluding transfer credits)	Threshold CGPA
Undergraduate (Associate or Bachelor)	First semester	1.67
	After first semester	2.00
Graduate	First semester	2.67
	After first semester	3.00

11.2 Credit Hour Completion

11.2.1 Term Enrollment Credit Hour Completion

Undergraduate students must complete at least 67 percent of their attempted courses per semester. Graduate students must complete at least 50 percent of their attempted courses per semester. Both undergraduate and graduate students must maintain at least 67 percent completion of their overall attempted courses.

A course will be treated as completed if it receives an official letter grade of A through F. A course will be treated as attempted but not completed, if it receives a grade of W (Withdrawal), I (Incomplete), or WU (Unofficial Withdrawal). UMT considers transfer credits as completed.

Percentage for overall and semester pace is calculated by dividing completed credits by attempted credits.

	Overall Pace	Semester Pace	Completed Credits	Attempted Credits
Undergraduate	67%	67%	Grades A through F, Transfer Credits	Completed Credits
Graduate		50%		Grades I, WU, W

11.2.2 Program Credit Hour Completion

Students using FSA may repeat a course to improve academic performance. However, the FSA program requires students to complete their programs within 150 percent of the credits needed to earn a degree and within the maximum time limits specified. Computation of credit hours of study includes transfer credits and credits earned from repeating a course that count toward meeting degree requirements. A student is ineligible to receive FSA once s/he has completed all required courses for the degree.

Academic Program	Standard Length (Years)	Max Length (Years)	Credits Required	Max Credits Can Attempt
Associate Degree	2	3	60	90
Bachelor Degree	4	5	120	180
MBA & MHA Degree	2.5	5	45	66
MSSH Degree	2.5	5	39	57
All Other Master Degrees	2	3	36	54
Executive Certificate	1	1.5	15	21
Graduate Certificate	1.5	2	21	30

12 SAP Warning, Probation and FSA Suspension

Students should strive to achieve or exceed minimum requirements in SAP both qualitatively and quantitatively.

If a student fails either one of these criteria, the student will be automatically put on FSA warning for one semester if the enrollment was the first semester of studies or s/he met SAP in the previous semester. The student must also have completed at least 33 percent of attempted credits for the semester.

After the warning semester, if the student still cannot meet SAP requirements, the student will be suspended from FSA funding. A student has the right to submit a SAP appeal. If a student's SAP appeal request is approved, the student will be put on FSA probation for one semester. The student must achieve a FSA eligible SAP status in the probation semester or the student will be suspended from FSA funding.

13 SAP Appeal Process

In the event that unusual circumstances – such as an academic program change, serious prolonged illness, death of a family member, or other traumatic event – are hindering a student's successful academic performance leading to the suspension of FSA, the student may submit a formal written appeal accompanied by relevant supporting documentation to the UMT FSA Office for approval by the Dean's Office. Appeals based on a need for assistance or claims of ignorance that the assistance was at risk will not be considered. Students are allowed only one appeal per academic year.

Students who desire to file an appeal should do so immediately upon notification of FSA suspension or will have to make provisions to pay their tuition and fees using non-FSA resources if an appeal remains under consideration at the start of the next semester. The student will be notified in writing whether the appeal is denied or approved within two weeks of its submission. UMT may require the student to provide an Academic Plan for SAP Improvement (APSI) for up to two (2) semesters.

Students whose FSA eligibility is suspended may be reinstated when they are able to reestablish SAP.

14 Leave of Absence

Under the Title IV regulations, UMT's Leave of Absence policy is not applicable to any FSA students. If a student skips a semester other than the Summer semester, s/he is considered withdrawn. If an FSA student who took off the Summer semester does not return for the Fall semester, s/he is considered withdrawn for both semesters.

15 Withdrawal

Refer to "Withdrawal Policy" in UMT Catalogs. FSA Students should note that withdrawal may cause a debt to ED based on the time enrolled and the withdrawal date. UMT has obligation to collect and return unearned amount that has disbursed for tuition and/or room/board to ED.

Official Withdrawal: FSA students desiring to withdraw from a course should submit a written request to withdraw to the Registrar's office and FSAO using a withdrawal request form. For semester withdrawals, the latest academic activity date in the semester prior to the request will be used to calculate the percentage for Return of Title IV.

Unofficial Withdrawal: For FSA students, the unofficial withdrawal effective date is determined by the latest academic activity date in the semester.

For previous borrowers in the Federal Student Loan programs, the consequences of withdrawal include, but are not limited to:

- Loss of in-school deferment status.
- Loan repayment grace period will start.
- Exhaust of grace period and immediate loan repayment.

Previous Federal Student Loan borrowers who drop to a less than halftime status are required to complete Exit Counseling through the Student Loans website (<https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action>).

16 Return to Title IV (R2T4)

Refer to "Tuition Refund Policy" in UMT catalogs.

If a student cancels enrollment within seven days resulting in the removal of enrollment history, FSA will be processed based on the new enrollment status. If FSA fund has been disbursed, UMT must calculate the amount to return to the appropriate OFSA program.

16.1 Calculate R2T4

Course withdrawal: The return amount is determined by the refund policy.

Semester withdrawal: FSA fund is disbursed on the assumption that a student will complete a semester so if a student withdraws, the FSAO will calculate the R2T4 amount on a pro rata basis and return the unearned amount.

The percentage of the semester completed up to the withdrawal date is used to calculate the amount of FSA the student has earned. For example, if a student completed 25 percent of the semester, s/he has earned 25 percent of the FSA fund and 75 percent needs to be returned to OFSA. If the withdrawal date is after the 60 percent point in the semester, the student has earned 100 percent FSA and a return is not required.

16.2 Order and Timeframe of R2T4

UMT returns unearned FSA in the following order:

1. Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loans
2. Federal Subsidized Direct Loans
3. Federal Direct PLUS Loans

4. Federal Pell Grant

UMT will return unearned FSA within 45 days from the determination of a student's withdrawal.

16.3 Post-withdrawal Disbursement

UMT will notify the student in writing if students did not receive all of the funds that they earned and due a post-withdrawal disbursement. Students have 14 days from notification to accept earned funds. If the post-withdrawal disbursement includes loans, students should consider decline the loan to avoid incurring additional debt.

UMT may automatically use all or a portion of students' post-withdrawal disbursements for tuition and fees. For all other school charges, UMT needs the students' permission. Students who do not grant permission will be offered the funds. However, by granting permission, they may be able to reduce their debt to the school.

Example of Post-Withdrawal Disbursement:

Tom officially withdraws from the university and earned 34 percent of FSA; however, he only received 17 percent of FSA fund. UMT notifies Tom that he is eligible to receive the remaining as a "post-withdrawal disbursement."

Tom has 14 days to accept or decline earned FSA. If an acceptance is not received within 14 days, UMT will return the funds to the appropriate OFSA program.

17 Federal Compliance

17.1 Campus Safety and Security

UMT has established a campus and workplace safety program to provide safe and healthful environment for employees, students, and visitors.

Any conduct that threatens, intimidates, or coerces another employee, student, or a member of the public at any time, including off-duty periods, will not be tolerated. This prohibition includes all acts of harassment, including harassment that is based on an individual's sex, race, age, or any characteristic protected by federal, state, or local laws.

All threats of (or actual) violence, both direct and indirect, should be reported as soon as possible to immediate supervisor, the Safety Manager, or any other member of management.

Crime statistics are reported to the Department of Education annually and additional information or copies of reports can be obtained from UMT's Safety Manager. Refer to "University Administration" in UMT catalogs. Additional information may be obtained from the Department of Education (ED)'s Campus Safety and Security website (<http://ope.ed.gov/campussafety/>).

The UMT Safety Manager has the responsibility for implementing, administering, monitoring, and evaluating the safety program. Success depends on the alertness and personal commitment of all.

17.2 U.S. Constitution Day

UMT encourages students to study the United States Constitution. In accordance with OFSA regulations, UMT requires its students to study the United States Constitution on 17 September annually by visiting <http://www.archives.gov/education/lessons/constitution-day> and/or <http://www.archives.gov/education/lessons/constitution-workshop>.

17.3 Disability Services

The location of UMT provides reasonable accommodation(s) for persons defined as disabled under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and all other local and state requirements dealing with students or visitors who have recognized disabilities.

Students can request additional services and/or accommodations by voluntarily self-disclosing and providing documentation to the Student Services Office for review. After review, UMT will recommend accommodation and notify faculty and staff of agreed accommodations. Students must notify Student Services upon each new registration so faculty and staff are aware of the accommodations.

Online students should refer to the “Online Education” in UMT catalogs for more guidance.

17.4 Electronic Signatures

The E-Sign Act⁹ permits schools to use electronic signatures and electronic records in place of traditional signatures and records. UMT seeks voluntary consent from a potential FSA recipient via the online application before conducting additional electronic transactions.

17.5 Vaccinations

International students and students who study on UMT campus, vaccinations are required in accordance to http://www.vaccines.gov/who_and_when/college/. UMT has no vaccination requirements to its online students.

17.6 Voter Registration

UMT makes a good faith effort to distribute electronically a voter registration form to each student enrolled in a degree or certificate program and physically in attendance at UMT. UMT’s online students will be responsible for their voter registrations locally based on their residence.

17.7 Facility

UMT is located in a commercial class B building at 1901 Fort Myer Drive, Arlington, VA, 22209-1609. The facility consists of 6,776 square feet of administrative offices.

17.8 Title IV Loan Code of Conduct

UMT disseminates the following information annually to all of the institution’s officers, agents, and employees.

The institution’s officers, agents, and employees may not receive the following direct or indirect payment for securing applicants for Title IV loans, which includes but is not limited to: points, premiums, payments, stock or other securities, prizes, travel, entertainment expenses, tuition payment or reimbursement, the provision of information technology equipment at below market value, additional financial aid funds or any other inducement from a guaranty agency or eligible lender.

The institution or its employees may not provide names and addresses and/or e-mail addresses of students or prospective students or parents to eligible lenders or guaranty agencies for the purpose of conducting unsolicited mailings, by either postal or electronic means, of student loan applications.

The institution will not allow any employee of the guaranty agency or eligible lender to perform any school-required function for a school participating in the Loan Program, except exit counseling. The institution will not permit guaranty agencies to conduct fraudulent or misleading advertising concerning loan availability, terms or conditions.

UMT will not permit an employee to enter into a consulting arrangement or other contract with an eligible lender.

The institution will not permit an employee working in the student financial aid office to serve on an advisory board for an eligible lender.

17.9 Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention and Policy

17.9.1 Standards of Conduct

UMT desires to provide a drug-free, healthy, and safe campus and workplace. To promote this goal, while on UMT premises, conducting business-related activities off UMT premises, or at any activity UMT sponsors, no employee or student may unlawfully use, possess, distribute or sell illicit drugs and alcohol. In addition to referral for prosecution by local and federal authorities, students and employees will be subject to University disciplinary action, up to and including termination for an employee or expulsion for a student.

⁹ The Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (E-Sign Act) was enacted on June 30, 2000. The E-Sign Act provides, in part, that a signature, contract, or other record relating to a transaction may not be denied legal effect, validity, or enforceability solely because it is in electronic form or because an electronic signature or electronic record was used in its formation.

17.9.2 Legal Sanctions

Federal law requires that we inform you of a description of the applicable legal sanctions under local, state or federal law for the unlawful possession or distribution of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol.

State Laws

Virginia laws related to unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol are the possible legal penalties for violation of these laws can be found at:

- <https://law.lis.virginia.gov/vacode/title4.1/chapter3/> - Alcohol
- <https://law.lis.virginia.gov/vacode/title18.2/chapter7/> - Drug offences (Article 1), Driving while Intoxicated (Article 2)

Federal Laws

The established classifications of controlled substances can be found at: https://www.dea.gov/pr/multimedia-library/publications/drug_of_abuse.pdf. Federal Penalties and sanctions for illegal possession of a controlled substance are as follows:

FEDERAL TRAFFICKING PENALTIES

*The minimum sentence for a violation after two or more prior convictions for a felony drug offense have become final is a mandatory term of life imprisonment without release and a fine up to $20 million if an individual and $75 million if other than an individual.

17.9.3 Health Risks

- Alcohol
 - Although alcohol is “legal”, it is the most commonly abused substance in school environments and in the workplace. It can lead to:
 - poor judgment and coordination
 - drowsiness and mood swings
 - liver damage and heart disease
- Cigarettes and other Nicotine Products
 - In 1989, the U.S. Surgeon General issued a report that concluded that cigarettes and other forms of tobacco, such as cigars, pipe tobacco and chewing tobacco, are addictive and that nicotine is the drug in tobacco that causes addiction. Nicotine is both a stimulant and a sedative to the central nervous system. It is readily absorbed from tobacco smoke in the lungs and it does not matter whether the tobacco smoke is from cigarettes, cigars or pipes. Nicotine is also absorbed readily when tobacco is chewed.
 - Major cause of stroke
 - Third leading cause of death in the US
 - Increases the chance of cardiovascular diseases
 - Higher expectancy rate of lung cancer, emphysema, and bronchial disorders
- Marijuana
 - Recent studies suggest that marijuana is addictive. In addition, marijuana is much stronger than it was twenty years ago. It can cause:
 - impaired short term memory
 - slowed reaction time
 - lung disease and infertility
- Prescription Drugs
 - Prescription drugs are not safe unless they are taken as prescribed. If abused they can lead to:
 - sluggishness or hyperactivity
 - impaired reflexes
 - addiction and brain damage
- Cocaine and Crack

- Highly addictive, cocaine and crack can speed up performance but the effect is short lived. More long lasting effects are:
 - shortened attention span
 - irritability and depression
 - seizure and heart attack
- Barbiturates
 - In small doses, barbiturates produce calmness, relaxed muscles, and lowered anxiety. Larger doses cause slurred speech, staggering gait, and altered perception. Very large doses or doses taken in combination with other central nervous system depressants (e.g., alcohol) may cause:
 - Respiratory depression, coma and even death
 - Poor muscle control
 - May appear drowsy or drunk
 - Become confused, irritable, or inattentive
 - Or have slowed reactions
- Amphetamines
 - Amphetamines, methamphetamines, or other stimulants can cause increased heart rate and respiratory rates, elevated blood pressure, and dilated pupils. Larger doses cause:
 - Rapid or irregular heartbeat
 - Tremors and physical collapse
 - An individual using amphetamines might begin to lose weight, have the sweats, and appear restless, anxious, moody, and unable to focus. Extended use may produce psychosis, including hallucinations, delusions and paranoia.
- Hallucinogens
 - PCP, or angel dust, interrupts the part of the brain that controls the intellect and keeps instincts in check. PCP blocks pain receptors.
 - Violent episodes, including self-inflicted injuries
 - Memory loss and speech difficulty
 - Convulsions, coma and heart failure
 - Sleeplessness, confusion, anxiety, and panic
- Steroids (anabolic)
 - Anabolic steroids are human-made substances related to male sex hormones. Some athletes abuse anabolic steroids to enhance performance. Abuse of anabolic steroids can lead to:
 - Serious health problems, some of which are irreversible
 - depression, hallucinations, paranoia
 - severe mood swings and aggressive behavior
 - liver tumors and cancer
 - jaundice, high blood pressure, kidney tumors, severe acne and trembling
 - In males side effects may include shrinking of the testicles and breast development. In females, side effects may include growth of facial hair, menstrual changes and deepened voice. In teenagers, growth may be halted prematurely and permanently.
- Narcotics
 - Because narcotics are generally injected, the use of contaminated needles may result in the contraction of many different diseases, including AIDS and hepatitis. Symptoms of overdose include shallow breathing, clammy skin, convulsions, and coma and may result in death. Some signs of narcotic use are euphoria, drowsiness, constricted pupils, and nausea. Other symptoms include:
 - Itchy skin
 - Needle or “track” marks on the arms and legs
 - Nodding
 - Lack of sex drive and appetite
 - Sweating

17.9.4 Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Programs

The prevention program is comprised of the following components:

- Education and information about the dangers of drug abuse in the workplace and on University property will be disseminated through University newsletters, bulletin boards, and special programs to employees, faculty and students.
- Programs which address unlawfully controlled substance use, including personnel actions that may result from such violations, are conducted and coordinated by the Human Resources Department and included in the Employee Handbook and Student Handbook
- Employees at UMT who are with the group insurance can access United Health Care drug and alcohol rehab centers and services provided by OptumHealth Behavioral Solutions. These services include confidential support in managing a wide range of personal issues, from everyday challenges to more serious problems. Employees are encouraged to speak with Human Resources for more information on private and public sources of assistance. Students are encouraged to seek help in their local area or through online programs and hotlines. Most communities offer a wide variety of resources. They include groups such as Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, hospitals, mental health centers, social service agencies, and private therapists. Some provide free services. Most of these groups are listed in your telephone book. Some other sources of assistance are:

National Institute on Drug Abuse Hotline: 1-800-662-HELP

National Cocaine Hotline: 1-800-COCAINE

National Council on Alcoholism: 1800-NCA-CALL

Partnership for a Drug Free America: 1-855-378-4373

Drug & Alcohol Treatment Referral National Hotline: 1-800-662-4357

Narcotics Anonymous, World Service Line: (818) 773-9999

National Alcoholics Anonymous: 212-870-3400

UMT conducts a biennial review of the Drug and Alcohol Prevention Program's effectiveness, implements changes, if needed, and ensures that the disciplinary sanctions are consistently enforced. The biennial review takes place in September in years ending with an odd number (i.e., 2014, 2016, 2018, etc.) The University solicits feedback or suggestions from students, employees and Advisory Committee members may have to increase the effectiveness of this program.

17.10 Drug Convictions Policy

According to federal law, a student who has been convicted of the sale or possession of illegal drugs under any federal or state law during a period of enrollment for which the student was receiving FSA is not eligible for FSA. A conviction that was reversed, set aside, or removed from the student's record does not affect FSA eligibility, nor does a conviction received when the student was a minor, unless the student was tried as an adult.

The chart below illustrates the period of ineligibility for FSA. A conviction for sale of drugs includes convictions for conspiring to sell drugs.

	Possession of illegal drugs	Sale of illegal drugs
1st offense	1 year from date of conviction	2 years from date of conviction
2nd offense	2 years from date of conviction	Indefinite period
3+ offenses	Indefinite period

If the student was convicted of both possessing and selling illegal drugs and the period of ineligibility is different, the student may be ineligible for FSA for the longer period of time.

A student regains eligibility the day after the period of ineligibility ends or when he successfully completes a qualified drug rehabilitation program. Further drug convictions will impact federal student aid eligibility as well.
