

Esteban Roche, Jr. Oxford, Pennsylvania

. . . studying from a distance allowed him to juggle family, career, and education

Seeking further education while holding down demanding jobs, Esteban Roche, Jr., discovered the University of Management and Technology, where he completed a Bachelor of Business Administration degree, an Executive Certificate in Project Management, and in 2010 a Master of Science in Information Technology degree.

Esteban has worked in dynamic environments including patrol, tactical response teams, and advanced training. Currently with the FBI Task Force, he is assigned to the Philadelphia Regional Computer Forensics Laboratory, having undergone rigorous training to become a Computer Forensics Examiner. Esteban has recently been promoted to Laboratory Quality Manager.

In addition to his work as a Law Enforcement Officer, Esteban serves as a Field Intelligence Support Specialist with the U.S. Coast Guard Reserves. This past year he was inducted into UMT's Kappa of Virginia Chapter of the Delta Epsilon Tau International Honor Society and is now embarking on a Doctoral program in Business Administration at UMT.

“UMT’s structured assignments are so practical that I can immediately apply new skills to my dynamic work environments. Distance education enhances not only my knowledge base but also increases my opportunities for growth within my profession.”